

BETTLES SITS IN A STUPOR

Would-Be Murderer and Suicide Confined at Lancaster County Jail.

HIS VICTIM AT HER PARENTS' HOME

Fear Expressed that Miss Voris Will Change Her Story in Order to Save Her Lover from the Penalty.

LINCOLN, Sept. 11.—(Special.)—Albert Bettles has not yet recovered fully from the big dose of belladonna he took with suicidal intent. When his influence had worn off slightly he was taken to the police station, where he lay all day long, silent and oblivious to all things about him.

Florence Voris, the girl in the case, whom he intended to take the poison on the representation that it would save her from seclusion, will be brought back from her home at Memphis tomorrow. While still under the influence of the drug she told her mother of all that had passed between her and Bettles and expressed a willingness to return and testify against him. She may change her mind, however, when she falls under the County Attorney Munger's left word at the station that no one should interview Bettles. Meanwhile Mr. Munger will have a talk with Miss Voris. He will then decide on what course to pursue.

In Bettles' effects at the lodging house were found a number of letters. One of them warned him to keep away from Omaha and Ashland, as warrants were out for his arrest, but for what cause was not stated.

References Taking Testimony.

E. P. Smith and E. R. Duffe, both of Omaha, who were referred to the collection of evidence in the suit of the state against the Union Pacific Railroad company for alleged violations of the maximum freight rate law, were in the city today taking testimony. They sat in the consultation room of the judges of the supreme court. The defendant company devoted its time to attacks on the regularity of the passage of the act under which suit is brought. The attorney general alleges that the "Union Pacific Railroad company" is a corporation created by the state of Nebraska, and that the company is a corporation created by the state of Nebraska, and that the company is a corporation created by the state of Nebraska.

School Law Leaves Forfeited.

The State Board of Public Lands and Ponds, held a meeting this morning, at which it declared forfeited about 70,000 acres of school land. The most of this has been leased and the renters have failed to make their agreed payments. It will be released, Land Commissioner Wolfe leaving the city the latter part of this week on a tour for this purpose.

Retires from Position.

Mr. S. P. Tracey resigned his position this morning at the Old Soldiers' and Sailors' Home at Milford. His resignation was accepted by the Board of Public Lands and Buildings and Dr. C. Stevens of Bruning chosen to fill the vacancy. It is said that Dr. Tracey resigned because he wants to change locations, having been desirous of leaving Milford for some time, the position under the state paying but $40 a month. There were two applicants for the place, Dr. Stevens and Mr. Rowe. Dr. Rowe is physician at the Woman's Industrial Home at Milford and the board was of the opinion that the state position in the family was sufficient in this particular instance. Dr. Stevens formerly lived in Seward county.

Disposal of Insane Man.

COLUMBUS, Neb., Sept. 11.—(Special.)—The stranger who was found a week ago in Loup township running amuck with a pitchfork and stark mad was adjudged insane by the County Board of Insanity Monday. He is violently insane and there is little hope that he can be restored to reason. From papers found his name is Chris Mereson and he is evidently a German. He imagines that he is constantly being pursued by officers who want to kill him. He passed the time in the jail either trying to secrete himself somewhere from his imaginary pursuers or loudly denouncing his persecutors. His action was approved by the board and makes pathetic appeals in his own defense. He will be taken to Norfolk soon, but it is probable that he will eventually be taken to the Home for the incurables.

Retires from Suit.

FREMONT, Neb., Sept. 11.—(Special.)—The case of the Grain Growers' Mutual Hill association of Omaha against John Reitz, which was tried in justice court here some time ago, was decided yesterday in favor of the defendant—no cause of action. It was an action to recover on an assessment for paying the losses of the company and was defended on the ground of fraud and irretrievable loss. The assessment and alleged misrepresentations of the agent. Similar suits were instituted some time ago in Saunders county and have been dismissed. The case will be appealed.

FLY TO PIECES.

The Effect of Coffee on Highly Organized People.

There have been a coffee user for years, and about two years ago I got into a very serious condition of dyspepsia and indigestion. It seemed to me I would fly to pieces. I was so nervous that at the least noise I was distressed, and many times could not straighten myself up because of the pain.

"My physician told me I must not eat any heavy or strong food and ordered a diet, giving me some medicine. I followed directions carefully, but kept on using coffee and did not get any better. Last winter husband, who was away on business, had Postum Food Coffee served to him in the family where he boarded. "He liked it so well that when he came home he brought some with him. We began using it and I found it most excellent. While I drank it my stomach never bothered me in the least, and I got over my nervous troubles. When the Postum was all gone we returned to coffee, then my stomach began to hurt me as before and the nervous conditions came on again. "That showed me exactly what was the cause of the whole trouble, so I quit drinking coffee altogether and kept on using Postum Food Coffee. The old troubles left again and I have never had any trouble since." Anna Cook, Mt. Ephraim, Ohio.

A committee on resolutions was appointed, consisting of Hoagland of Lincoln, McAllister of Deuel, Cook of Dawson and Wilkerson of Kimball. There being no opposition the nomination was made unanimous. Owens being called for, delivered a pleasing response and pledged himself to the enactment of all laws that would not only be beneficial to his constituents, but to the whole state at large. Hon. After the appointment of various central committees the convention adjourned.

Immediately upon the dissolution of the senatorial convention a large number of representative district convention was called to order. Roy Lyons of Cheyenne county read the call. Hon. George McAllister of Deuel was elected chairman and H. L. Ridgely of Lincoln secretary. The same platform was adopted as in the previous convention. ## Republicans Working Quietly.

CAMBRIDGE, Neb., Sept. 11.—(Special.)—A stranger passing along the streets of our town might think that we are strongly in favor of Bryan, but such is not true. Almost every democrat has a large portrait of their would-be president in the bay window, but you don't see McKinley's any place. This illustrates the difference of the two parties. The democrats are very loud and praise everybody to know that they are democrats, while the good republicans keep their mouth shut, keep down all external signs and think and reason with himself and God as to which is the best for himself and his fellow-man. Cambridge carry a big majority for McKinley and Roosevelt this fall.

Looks Bright for Republicans.

WYOMORE, Neb., Sept. 11.—(Special.)—Senator P. N. Prout of Beatrice, candidate for attorney general, and the Republican ticket, was at the Touzalin hotel several hours today. In conversation with The Bee correspondent Mr. Prout stated that the outlook for the success of the Republican ticket was exceedingly bright in Nebraska this year. His opinion was formed from actual knowledge gained in his travels over all sections of the state. The young men, especially, in all parts of the state are for Dietrich and there is no reason to believe that they will scratch the balance of the ticket. Nebraska voters are not enthused over Bryan like they were four years ago.

How Bright's Disease Starts.

Indigestion, biliousness, blood poisoned with urea and uric acid (which should have been excreted by the kidneys, rheumatic pains in nerves and joints, causing irritation of the kidneys, then pains over the small of the back, mark sure approach of Bright's disease. ## ALL HAIL KING ST. EEB RAGUS

Immense Crowds at Fremont Street Fair Pay Homage to Monarch.

ROYAL PARTY RECEIVES KEYS OF CITY

Many Exercises and Attractions Furnished Previous Possibility of a Ball Moment for Visitors—Fine Agricultural Display.

FREMONT, Neb., Sept. 11.—(Special.)—The heavy rains and wind of last night played havoc with the preparations for the monarchs on the streets and left many in a dispirited condition, but had no effect whatever upon the attendance or interest in the street fair. The train from the north on the Elkhorn brought in the Hooper County band and several crowds of people from up the line of the road to enjoy the festivities and trains on the Union Pacific were also loaded with passengers for Fremont.

The features of the morning's exercises were the civic parade and arrival of King St. Eeb Ragus. The parade formed on Main street between First and Second and was led by the members of the St. Eeb Ragus on horseback, followed by the Hooper band, the Woodmen of the World, Highlanders and other organizations. The parade was a splendid one, with many floats, including a float of green, silver and gilt. He was attended by the court chaplain, Sir Knight G. A. Murrell, and three gentlemen of the court, Sir Knights F. M. Healey, Emil Closs and A. K. Dams.

The progress of the king through the streets was greeted with cheers and applause. The parade halted at the platform on the corner of Sixth and Main streets, where were seated Mayor Vaughn and the members of the city council. His majesty was escorted to the platform and greeted by the mayor in a brief address with the huge gilded key of the city. He replied thanking the mayor for the honor and trust bestowed on him, congratulating the mayor on his success as a ruler and expressing the wish that his state reputation be as successful and prosperous. The parade then reform, headed by the manager of the St. Eeb Ragus, mounted, and the chariot of the king and followed by the other bodies marched to the hall of the knights on Fifth street.

During the forenoon free entertainments were given on the various elevated platforms, the first being by the Alexander sisters, corner of Fifth and Main. These two little colored girls are proving one of the best attractions of the fair and the crowds closely at their entertainments.

There was an increased crowd on the streets this afternoon, made up of people who had driven in from the country, residents of the city and fresh arrivals on the trains. During the noon hour "Gump's parade" consisting of cats of all ages, dogs, sizes and varieties, in cages, drawn by dogs and attended by boys, evoked much laughter and fun. Zerkki, the magician, occupied platform No. 4, and was followed at platform five by Karcher and Moore, musical artists and comedians, and the "dog parade" which underwent many changes of costume.

The lion continued, windy and dusty drought was broken this morning. Rain commenced falling at 6 a. m. and has continued all day. It has been a slow but continual precipitation which is absorbed by the earth as it falls. Farmers rejoice, as it enables them to plow and put in rice, which is the surest crop as regards small grain, in this locality. A large area will be devoted to this cereal, which no longer assures late and early spring pasture for the stock, but a fair yield of grain.

MINDEN, Neb., Sept. 11.—(Special.)—Four and one-half inches of rain yesterday and last night seemed to be general over this section of country. There has been a large amount of fall wheat and most of the area is now in the ground. Next week is county fair week. ## TEXAS STORM IN NEBRASKA

Galveston's Destroyer Passes Through State, but Leaves Benefits Instead of Ruin.

COLUMBUS, Neb., Sept. 11.—(Special.)—One of the heaviest rainstorms of the year set in here yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The gauge at the government station this morning registered 5.1 inches. The laterals of the irrigation ditch have overflowed in a number of places and caused more or less trouble in places. A bridge over Shell creek, just south of Platt Center on the Norfolk branch of the Union Pacific, went out last night about 11 o'clock just as a freight train was passing. The last three cars were derailed and the track torn up. Fortunately no lives were lost. The train was repaired so that traffic was resumed this afternoon at 1 o'clock.

WEST POINT, Neb., Sept. 11.—(Special.)—The heaviest rainstorm known in many years at this season occurred last night. A heavy downpour continued for twelve hours without intermission. The rain gauge registered five inches of water. This will materially help fall plowing, which had ceased on account of the weather.

SCHUYLER, Neb., Sept. 11.—(Special.)—The excessive hot weather which culminated in a day almost unendurable last Sunday was followed by cloudy weather Monday and the commencement on Monday evening of what proved to be one of the heaviest rains known in this section by even the oldest settlers. The inches of rain that fell during the night was a warm blanket over the crops. The rain gauge registered five inches of water. This will materially help fall plowing, which had ceased on account of the weather.

SHIELBY, Neb., Sept. 11.—(Special.)—According to the opinions of the older residents the rain last night and yesterday was the heaviest we have had in ten years. All the basins were filled with water. A privately constructed gauge showed four and seven-eighths inches of rainfall. There was little wind and no thunder or lightning. The corn crop about Shelby will be considerably above the average, many of the best grain crops in the state. The small grain crop was also fine and prospects for another year could hardly be more flattering.

HARVARD, Neb., Sept. 11.—(Special.)—About 1 o'clock yesterday a light rain began falling. The rain continued for several hours and at intervals raining quite hard till about 3 o'clock this morning. The amount of water falling, as shown by the government gauge, being 5.1 inches. The rain came without wind, being a "stratified" rain, and will be much appreciated.

NEBRASKA'S FOOT BALL TEAM

Outlook at the University is Uncommonly Good Just at Present.

COACH BOOTH HAS MUCH MATERIAL

Plenty of Experienced Players from Which to Work out an Eleven to Represent the State.

LINCOLN, Sept. 11.—(Special.)—The Nebraska university foot ball situation is becoming animated. Coach Walter C. Booth arrived in the city last night. Captain Brew has been here since Wednesday and Manager Tukey came in tonight. A conference was held this evening and the situation thoroughly canvassed. All three officials are delighted with the prospect. Said Captain Brew: "The prospects for a winning team were never better in the history of the school. We are going to have an abundance of heavy and tried players. In addition to nine of last year's players there will be a number of experienced men who played on our own team in former years, and men from other colleges who will be in the school this fall. No man is assured a position. Everyone will have to work for what he gets, regardless of reputation."

Coach Booth is a large, affable and attractive looking young man of 24 years. For four consecutive seasons he has been a member of the Princeton first eleven. In 1896 he began his coaching career from here to guard and there on to center, where he remained for the three succeeding years. He was graduated from the academic course last June and has been spending his vacation in the mountains of the east. He comes here with his interest in his work and with a warm sentiment for the university. As soon as the law school opens he will register for work in the junior class, becoming one of the students. He says his playing weight is 210, but he looks twenty pounds better than that now.

Wants to Develop Kickers.

It is the opinion of the coach for him to tell just what style of play he will teach, as much will depend on the personnel of the men. He favors a kicking game, but if punters cannot be developed he is willing to resort to line bucking methods. On this score he said: "There should be much kicking if we've got the men, but if we haven't got them and can't develop them, we'll have to use other methods."

So far there are no kickers with reputations. Last season, Strimmer, a senior, later, however, there is plenty of excellent material in prospect, though, and the fact that a man once held a position on the team is no assurance he will hold the place this year. So far the most prominent candidates expected at school are:

Material in Sight.

Center—Kosher, last year's center, and Welch, center for Omaha high school last year. Guards—Brew and Ringer, last year's guards; Bollen, from Taber college, Ia., a member of the '97 team; Gilbert, a member of the victorious team of '98, and Pillsbury, a member of the same famous eleven. Tackles—Westover, last year's left tackle; Gilbert, Pillsbury and Fisher, the star tackle for Doane in '97. Ends—Cortelyou and Drain, who played these positions last season; Strimmer, a right end for the seasons of '97 and '98, and Ryan, a quick, heavy, nifty man, who failed to make the team last year. He has been spending his summer in the Rocky mountains preparing for the coming campaign. He himself is confident that he will win a place.

Quarterback—Manager Tukey and "Stub" Crandall, both of whom played last season; ex-Captain Williams, Gordon, Hooper and McKillop.

Fullback—Carver, Gordon and Bell, all of whom played this position at times during last season; Tucker, fullback on the team of '94; Kingsbury and Bollen.

Graduate Coaches Plenty.

It is thought the team this year will have the advantage of considerable graduate coaching. "Bill" Melford, captain of the victorious team of '98, will be in the city if he doesn't accept a position offered as coach at a minor school, which now seems probable. He has been a member of the team since his experience and knowledge of the game to Nebraska's aspirants this year. Wiggins, who played end for four years, has agreed to come down from Omaha once a week and assist in coaching this portion of the line and William Mann, an ex-Valer end, will also aid this portion of the men. An effort is being made to establish a training table. Kansas' superb endurance last year is attributed to the fact that she had a training table and Nebraska's coach, Captain and manager will not be satisfied this year until the same privilege is enjoyed here.

Superior in the Dark.

SUPERIOR, Neb., Sept. 11.—(Special.)—Superior has been in partial darkness for a week, the Republican river, which furnishes power for the electric light system, having gone almost dry. There have been a little on the streets and the moon's deserts burned until 10 o'clock only. Two and four-tenths inches of rain yesterday helped matters. Guthrie Bros., proprietors of the roller mill, yesterday contracted for a 100 horse-power Sioux City Corlies engine with 125 horse-power boilers, to be running in thirty days. With this they will have power for themselves and the lighting plant when the river is low.

Must Support His Child.

HARTINGTON, Neb., Sept. 11.—(Special Telegram.)—John J. Vinkle was brought from Iowa last Saturday on the charge of criminal assault preferred by Annie Borchardt of Randolph. The crime was alleged to have been committed in August, 1898. The case was dismissed by Judge Plumleigh. Vinkle was adjudged father of her child, which was born in the spring of 1899, at the spring term of the district court and since the dismissal on the charge of assault he is held by the sheriff to carry out the injunctions of the court that he should pay $1,000 for the support of the child.

Will Bring Home Destitute Miners.

the far north to bring back destitute miners. All the available space below decks is devoted to the packing of bedding for nearly 1,000 persons, besides the regular complement of officers and crew. The big transport will proceed to sea some, stopping at Seattle for supplies.

Chicago's Society Horse Show.

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—Chicago will have a horse show October 29, 30 and 31, and November 1, 2 and 3. Mortimer Lowenthal will be the secretary and general manager. This exhibition is intended strictly as a society event, and to prepare for it there will be over 100 boxes, seating from six to eight persons each.

No Relief for 20 Years.

"I had bronchitis for twenty years," said Mrs. Minerva Smith of Danville, Ill., "and at times have been bedfast. I never got relief until I had taken Foley's Kidney and Urinary Pills. It is a pleasant and gives quick relief and is a sure cure for throat and lung diseases." Take nothing else, Myers-Dillon Drug Co., Omaha; Dillon's Drug Store, South Omaha.
